SCCC Club Meeting Minutes – February 22, 2018

President Kevin Smith called the meeting to order. He noted that Doug Conrad brought in the camera case that he mentioned on Facebook for member inspection.

Vice president, Tom Schoening, discussed a possible club outing to Newton Hill State Park next October. He will distribute via email more information regarding that event.

Mike Walsh discussed the schedule for the club's Lewis & Clark exhibit. It will run from October 1st into January. The center would also like the club to put on a program during that period.

Rich Wright hosted the digital competition. His judges were Gary Gilbert, Jerry Weiershauser, and Marnae Wright.

Black & white digital winners included Doug Conrad, 1st for "Women of Achievement Bridge" and honorable mention for "Time For a Smoke," Randall Williams, 2nd for "Oak Grove Park," Ron Nicholls, 3rd for "River Falls Bridge" and 4th for "Coming into the Station," and Robert Gillespie for "Oculus."

Color digital winners included Doug Conrad, 1st for "Eagle Laying in the Grass"; Randall Williams, 2nd for "Suspension," 3rd for "Happy Kitty Sleepy Kitty," and honorable mention for "Road Repair"; Ron Nicolls, 4th for "Cone Park Making Snow" and honorable mention for "Homestead"; and Jerry Weiershauser, honorable mentions for "End of the Bridge" and "Snack Time."

Michael Greiner hosted the print competition. His judges were Mike Carr, Norton and Janet Evans, and Annie Greiner.
