SCCC Meeting Minutes – 01/26/2017 ** Amended

President Kevin Smith called the business meeting to order, welcomed guests, and recognized new member Jerry Mennenga.

Kevin said that we need a volunteer (contact Tom Schoening) to put together a slide show for the February 4th kickoff event for our display at the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center. Tom noted that Carl Hardy and Ron Nicolls would be interviewed the following Friday on KSCJ radio regarding the event. (Note: Carl and Tom partook in the interview.)

N4C is looking for judges for next year's Digital competition, in September, and Black and White Nature, in November. Talk to Kevin if you would like to volunteer.

Kevin noted that since the club did not charge for attending the Christmas dinner, he would appreciate voluntary contributions of $5 to help defray those costs.

Recent N4C winners include the following: Roger Van Klompenburg, honorable mention; Jack Bristow, merit; Kevin Smith, merit; Larry Crabb, merit; Mike Walsh, merit; and Shane Monahan, second place.

Ron Nicolls announced that he filed the paperwork to maintain the club's non-profit status for the next two years. He said that Dawn Mikkelson will take on this task for future submissions.

Carl Hardy hosted the digital competition for January. Kevin Smith and Carol Blair were his judges. Black and White winners were Doug Conrad, 1st place; Randy Williams, 2nd; Carol Blair, 3rd; Michael Greiner, 4th; and honorable mentions to Kevin Smith, Doug Conrad, and Paula Warp. Color winners were Kevin Smith, 1st place; Doug Conrad, 2nd; Michael Greiner, 3rd; Mike Walsh, 4th; and honorable mentions to Carol Blair, Carl Hardy, and Ron Nicolls.

Thanks to Bob Gillespie for providing snacks and refreshments for our break.

Jack Bristow hosted the print judging for January. His judges were Doug Conrad, Mike Walsh, and Jim Hollander. Color winners were Michael Greiner, 1st and 4th place; Doug Conrad, 2nd; Mike Walsh, 3rd; and honorable mentions to Carey Anderson and Rich Wright. Black and White winners were Doug Conrad, 1st place; Michael Greiner, 2nd; Mike Walsh, 3rd and 4th; and honorable mention to John Paulson.

Respectfully submitted,

Rich Wright
Secretary/Treasurer
